DEPUTY ASSOCIATE ADMINISTRATOR OFFICE OF CONGRESSIONAL AFFAIRS

INTRODUCTION

This position is located in the Office of the Administrator, and the Office of Congressional and Intergovernmental Relations (OCIR)/Office of Congressional Affairs (OCA). The incumbent serves as the Deputy Associate Administrator for the Office of Congressional Affairs (OCA) and reports directly to the Associate Administrator for OCIR. OCA serves as the Administrator's principal point of contact for Congress on all Agency matters. The office serves as a liaison for these parties to the Office of the Administrator and senior Agency officials and facilitates communications between EPA Headquarters and Regions and elected officials in coordination with the Office of Intergovernmental Relations in OCIR.

The incumbent of the position requested for Schedule C exception will not be able to adequately perform his/her duties without being privy to the political, personal, and management philosophies of the Administrator and Deputy Associate Administrator. A confidential relationship of a Schedule C nature is imperative since the incumbent will speak for the Administrator and Deputy Associate Administrator and, as such, will be expected to reflect his/her philosophies in conversation with leading figures of government, business, and other groups. The incumbent will also be obliged to present the views of the Administrator or Deputy Associate Administrator in correspondence and other communications with the Agency manager and program officials.

MAJOR DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

1. Oversees the development of Agency policy pertaining to Congressional and legislative affairs programs of the EPA. This requires close collaboration with internal and external partners including Congressional members and their staffs, the Agency's Administrator, Deputy Administrator, Federal departments and agencies, e.g., the Office of Management and Budget, EPA program and Regional offices, states, private organizations, and academia, and OCIR's program implementation, communication and outreach activities. Develops program plans for the operation of the office.
2. Establishes and maintains working relationships with stakeholders within the Agency and those outside the Agency to keep abreast of thinking and plans which affect Agency programs. Works with all appropriate parties, as required, to implement the Agency's programs on emerging issues, concerns and regulations. Recommends and coordinates personal involvement by the Administrator/Deputy Administrator in relations with Members of Congress and their staffs. Works with the Office of General Counsel to encourage the adoption of methods for dealing effectively with other federal agencies and OMB to ensure that they are brought to bear in the development of specific EPA policy and program initiatives.

3. Provides expert advice to the Associate Administrator, Principal Deputy Associate Administrator and Deputy Associate Administrator for OCIR on congressional legislation, represents the Agency at intra-agency, inter-agency, national meetings involving congressional legislation issues; coordinates quick turn-around Congressional inquiries, and serves as technical point of contact between OCIR and EPA program offices, EPA regional offices, and other Federal agencies, states, the Congress, non-governmental organizations and industry on matters pertaining to appropriations and cross-cutting environmental threats. The incumbent reviews briefing material prepared by staff for the Associate Administrator and Principal Deputy Associate Administrator, Deputy Associate Administrator on environmental issues.
4. May represent the Agency at the White House or before Congressional and interagency conferences. Carries out special assignments to explain the Agency's legislative mission and objectives. As required, briefs the Associate Administrator and other key officials regarding congressional issues.
5. Coordinates the Agency's appearances at Congressional hearings. This includes coordinating the drafting of testimony and obtaining Agency concurrence on testimony; clearance of testimony through OMB; preparation of Agency witnesses; summarizing the hearings for senior management and coordination of responses to questions presented at Congressional hearings.
6. Keeps currently informed on Congressional activities affecting the Agency and briefs and consults with key staff in the Headquarters and the Regional Offices on developments in Congress that may affect Agency programs. Reviews prepared status reports and studies for the Associate Administrator. These assignments are generally far reaching in impact, unique, and of special depth or intensity and require imaginative and novel approaches. Makes recommendations to the Associate Administrator for possible courses of action.
7. Performs technical direction and workflow management for priority OCA projects. This will constitute a major duty occupying at least 50% of the incumbent's time. Such responsibilities include reviewing work on a daily, weekly, and monthly basis as assigned and prioritized by the Associate Administrator.
8. Coordinates, as assigned, OCA's strategic planning, budgeting, administrative systems work projects and other internal activities necessary for coordinating implementation of OCIR's priority programs and projects.
9. Works closely with subordinate supervisory staff and management to gain knowledge, exchange information, resolve issues, and/or discover opportunities that can assist in the implementation of the office's mission and objectives.

10. Exercises management responsibility over staff members, making assignments and determining duties and priorities, evaluating employee performance, recommending incentives, initiating corrective actions, assuring safety, keeping employees informed at all times, counseling employee, etc.

11. Exercise continuing responsibility to effectively support EEO/Affirmative Action Plan and communicating this support to subordinates, taking positive actions which will motivate and give opportunity to all personnel.

12. Performs other duties of a strictly confidential nature, as assigned.
